

Facilitating change

Legal solutions to help you achieve closure.

You are in expert hands

Personalised support with a resolute team by your side.

Proven specialists

Australia's leading team of accredited law experts.

At Watts McCray we have been providing specialist services to the community for more than forty years and have many accredited specialists in Family Law, Dispute Resolution and Property. With a wealth of knowledge and experience we can assist people to negotiate all of the difficulties that can arise upon the breakdown of a relationship and to navigate the challenges that can arise upon the commencement of a new relationship. We can also assist people securing their futures with wills and testamentary trusts or assisting in day to day conveyancing and commercial transactions.

Our specialists are leaders in the field with not only extensive practical experience but also genuine compassion for our clients. We aim to provide a caring and supportive environment for your needs.

In the Family Law context our mission is:

To provide the most effective and efficient guidance and representation to our clients, to meet and where possible exceed their expectations and to provide a sympathetic and understanding environment in which their family law issues can be resolved.

Engaging an Accredited Specialist ensures that you are represented to the highest standard possible, by a lawyer who has been recognised as standing out as a leader in their field.

FAMILY LAW AND YOU

Our family law specialists know that the prospect of seeking legal help and selecting a lawyer can be daunting. They also understand that each client's circumstances are unique and require individual consideration and advice. With the utmost professionalism, integrity and individual attention they provide advice in the following areas:

- Separation and divorce
- Binding Financial Agreements (pre, during and following a relationship)
- Urgent Applications to the Court (including asset freezing Orders, recovery of children and Airport Watchlist Orders)
- Arrangements for children and other parenting issues
- Child Support
- Domestic Violence
- Property Settlement (marriage and de facto) including:
 - Analysis of complex property arrangements involving companies and trusts
 - Undertaking investigations to determine the extent of a party's assets and ownership structures
 - Valuation and division of superannuation
- International family law disputes
- Dispute Resolution:
 - Collaborative Law
 - Mediation
 - Arbitration

"I am so absolutely appreciative for what you have achieved on my behalf. The last few months have been particularly difficult for me...I can finally breathe and make plans for my future life. Thank you once again."

"I just want to thank you both for your advice and support in a decision that hopefully overcomes the angst and allows us to move on to a better place."

"Going through Family Court was a lonely and frightening experience. At Watts McCray I felt understood and represented in the best possible way. Each step of the process was explained, my fears were taken seriously and I felt taken care of as a human and not as a case."

"I just wanted to take the opportunity of thanking you for your wonderful assistance with helping me to finalise my husband's estate. You have been most professional, patient and efficient in returning my phone calls, emails and in explaining and dealing with the necessary paperwork. During this most stressful and sad time, it has been reassuring to know that these legal matters are 'in good hands'."
